

Roles & Responsibilities with Pre-Interview Tasks for Volunteers AY 25-26

Introduction

This document serves as a detailed guide to help interested students understand the various roles and responsibilities available within The Speaker's Club, VIT Pune. Each position plays a unique part in supporting the club's vision — to create a platform for open dialogue, critical thinking, and confident expression among students.

This recruitment drive specifically aims to expand our team and onboard passionate students who are eager to contribute to the club's various activities such as debates, discussions, event management, media, and outreach. Selected volunteers are recruited for Speaker's Arena Execution. They will work with Domain Lead's, Domain Head's and will receive certificate of volunteering for Speaker's Arena.

Through this document, you'll gain clarity about the different domains, their key functions, and the skills required for each. This will help you identify which role best matches your interests, strengths, and goals. Whether you're inclined toward event coordination, creative communication, research, outreach, or technical support, there's a space for you to contribute meaningfully and grow as a communicator and leader.

Important Note for Applicants: In addition to the role descriptions, this document also includes specific pre-interview tasks for the domains. You are required to review the tasks for the specific role you are applying for and complete them prior to your interview.

We encourage you to read through each section carefully before applying to ensure your selection aligns with your abilities and passions, and to come fully prepared with your completed tasks.

1. Aesthetics

Role & Responsibilities:

- Ensure visual and brand consistency across all Speaker's Club content and event setups.
- Collaborate closely with the Graphics and Social Media teams for poster designs, event themes, and digital presence.
- Assist in event space decoration (debates, workshops, ceremonies) as per event's nature and the club's identity.
- Propose and execute creative visual themes for flagship events like Speaker's Edge and Speaker's Arena.

Pre-Interview Tasks:

1. Suggest 3 ideas for art forms to be displayed at the Speaker's Club VIT Pune's flagship event, Speaker's Edge. (Go through our social media handle.)
2. For each of the art forms you come up with, provide the overall idea behind it.
3. Keep your previous artwork (it could be anything - painting, sketching, origami, etc., done in school, college, or even at home) ready to be discussed during the interview in a suitable format.

2. Social Media

Role & Responsibilities:

- Create and Curate Content: Design posts, stories, reels, and captions that highlight ongoing and upcoming events, club activities, and key moments.
- Event Coverage: Capture high-quality photos and videos during sessions, debates, and discussions, and edit them for social media publication.
- Maintain Online Presence: Schedule posts, manage uploads, and ensure regular updates to keep our audience informed and engaged.
- Ideation & Creativity: Suggest innovative content ideas, trends, and interactive formats that can increase visibility and student participation.
- Team Collaboration: Coordinate closely with the Social Media Lead and other volunteers to ensure a smooth and consistent content workflow.
- Analytics & Insights: Monitor engagement metrics (likes, reach, shares, etc.) and suggest improvements to enhance overall digital performance.

Pre-Interview Tasks:

1. List basic social media tools — Instagram, LinkedIn, and Facebook posting features.
2. Ideate a grid for three debates (number of reels, carousels, posts, and suggested posting timings).
3. Think of a creative idea for a reel or short video to promote the recent debate “Editorial Control vs Unfiltered Voices.”
4. Bring any previous content you’ve created (optional but appreciated).
5. Suggest improvements for existing social media pages.

3. Graphics

Role & Responsibilities:

- Design visual materials for club events such as posters, banners, social media posts, flyers, and logos.
- Collaborate with event coordinators to understand the theme and message to be communicated visually.
- Ensure visual consistency with the club's branding and maintain quality across all graphics.
- Experiment and innovate with design ideas to attract and engage the audience.
- Support with offline creatives when needed (banners, standees, certificates).

Pre-Interview Tasks:

1. Design a carousel/post/Poster for a major debate on: "Editorial Control v/s Unfiltered Voices"
2. Point out at least two areas for improvement related to design consistency or visual flow.
3. Show any previous design portfolio or work samples.

4. Publicity & Outreach

Role & Responsibilities:

- Represent the Club's Voice– Be the face of the Speaker's Club across campus and beyond, helping spread its vision of confidence and communication.
- Lead Creative Publicity Campaigns– Plan and execute engaging on-campus and social media campaigns that boost participation and visibility.
- Network & Collaborate with Other Colleges– Build meaningful connections with students and clubs from other institutes through outreach and collaborations.
- Develop Real-World Communication & Marketing Skills– Learn to craft messages, handle promotions, and manage audiences — skills directly useful for professional growth.
- Contribute Ideas that Shape Club's Presence– Bring your creativity to design activities, reels, or initiatives that make the club more dynamic and recognized on and off campus.

Pre-Interview Tasks:

1. Write a 30–60 second pitch encouraging students to join the Public Speaking event.
2. Write a 3–4-line convincing response to a student who says: "I don't attend club events because they take too much time."

3. Suggest 3 practical and creative ideas to boost offline publicity in the college.

5. Venue & Operations

Role & Responsibilities:

- Venue Management
Book venues, get permissions, and ensure cleanliness, lighting, and seating before events.
- Technical & Equipment Setup
Coordinate with the tech team for mics, speakers, and projectors; check functionality before the event.
- Logistics & Coordination
Manage stage setup, registration, and participant flow; assist speakers and guests during events.
- Event Flow & Handling
Stay alert to handle issues quickly and maintain a smooth event flow.
- Post-Event Duties
Supervise cleanup, restore venue condition, and note key feedback for future improvements.

Pre-Interview Tasks:

1. Event Planning Exercise:
Imagine our club is hosting an open-mic event for 60 participants.
 - Choose a suitable venue (e.g., classroom, auditorium, hall, etc.)
 - List five key arrangements you'll need to make
 - Create a simple timeline (before, during, after the event) showing what tasks you'll handle and whenPresent your plan in a short one-page document or Google Slide/PDF.
2. Problem-Solving Scenario:
During the event, the microphone suddenly stops working mid-speech. Write in 3–4 sentences how you'll handle the situation calmly and ensure the event continues smoothly.

6. Finance

Role & Responsibilities:

- Budget Research and Assistance: Assist event teams by researching vendor costs, material prices, and potential venue fees to inform the initial budget proposal.
- Expense Monitoring: Track actual event expenses against the approved budget during the execution phase, alerting the execution team and Finance team to any potential overruns or discrepancies.
- Post-Event Reconciliation: Assist in comparing the final actual expenditure to the approved budget to identify variances and help prepare the final financial report for event closure. Make sure to manage proper documentation for all the financial transactions and cooperate accordingly with the execution team.

Pre-Interview Tasks:

1. What measures will you take to avoid a shortfall of the Budget?
2. Explain a few financial terms used in the process of passing a budget.
3. Prepare a sample budget for an event, expecting a crowd of about 200 students. Take consideration for the expenses you consider needed with justification

7. Sponsorship

Role & Responsibilities:

- Handle the full sponsorship pipeline — from lead identification to deal closure.
- Research and qualify companies (especially in tech and education) that align with the club's mission.
- Prepare customized proposals, presentations, and MOUs tailored to sponsor goals.
- Lead outreach, communication, and negotiations, ensuring transparency and compliance.
- Plan and execute sponsor activations, ensuring timely and smooth delivery.
- Coordinate with PR, Events, and Tech teams to meet sponsor commitments.
- Oversee brand visibility — including logo placements, social media posts, booths, and stage mentions.
- Act as the primary contact for sponsors, maintaining positive relations and encouraging future collaborations.

Pre-Interview Tasks:

1. Draft a short email pitch to a potential sponsor introducing the club and the sponsorship opportunity.
2. Suggest two unique, non-monetary value-adds that the club could offer a sponsor.
3. Identify two potential companies from at least two different domains that could be approached for sponsorship.
4. Be ready to discuss how you'd maintain positive relations and encourage future collaborations.

8. Content and Research

Role & Responsibilities:

- Topic Selection:
Identify and propose relevant, engaging, and thought-provoking topics for debates, discussions, and speeches.
- Background Research:
Conduct thorough research on each selected topic to ensure factual accuracy and depth of understanding.
- Content Creation:
Prepare briefs, outlines, and background notes to assist Speaker's in developing their speeches or arguments.
- Event Documentation:
Draft event reports, minutes of meeting, summaries, and key takeaways after each club session or activity.

Pre-Interview Tasks:

1. Draft a Sample Event Report:
Create a brief and well-structured event report summarizing the key details in one or two sentences.
2. Propose Debate and Discussion Topics:
Suggest two thoughtful topics each for debate and discussion, ensuring you have a clear and in-depth understanding of them.
3. Prepare for the Debate Session:
Choose one topic and prepare arguments for both sides — for and against the motion — to demonstrate balanced critical thinking.
