ABOUT THE CLUB

The VIT Reading Club

A community of Vishwakarma Institute of Technology, Pune, dedicated to fostering a love for reading and intellectual exploration.

With a vision to nurture curiosity, creativity, and communication, the Club has become a space where literature meets imagination and every reader finds their voice. Its aim is to build a lifelong habit of reading — not only books, but also newspapers and magazines.

By providing an inclusive platform for discussion, reflection, and knowledge-sharing, the Club encourages members to strengthen critical thinking, broaden perspective, and stay engaged with the world around them. Beyond reading, it offers a journey of growth and leadership, equipping members with the confidence to thrive as part of a community that values curiosity and dialogue.
